APMC (Agricultural Produce Market Committee)

Date: 17-12-2024

Time: 09:00 AM to 11:30 AM

Venue for Briefing: New Library

Visit Location: APMC Sardar Market, Surat

Field Visit Report: M. Com Semester-4 Students Explore APMC Sardar Market, Surat

As part of the Gnan Dhara initiative, a field visit to the Agricultural Produce Market Committee (APMC), Sardar Market, Surat, was organized on 17th December 2024 for the students of M. Com Semester-4.

The visit commenced early in the morning, with students gathering at the college at 7:00 AM. The purpose of the visit was to provide students with practical exposure to the functioning of agricultural markets, including insights into pricing systems, processing methods, and the utilization of waste to generate various forms of energy, such as biogas.

During the visit, students gained hands-on knowledge of the operational structure of APMC Surat, a government-regulated market that plays a vital role in the agricultural economy. The experience helped bridge the gap between theoretical concepts and real-world applications. Some participating students also shared their feedback and reflections, expressing how the visit enhanced their understanding of market mechanisms and sustainable practices in agri-business.

This visit was a valuable component of experiential learning, allowing students to explore the real-time operations of an agricultural marketplace and encouraging them to think critically about India's agrarian economy and environmental sustainability.
