SPECIAL ACTIVITY

April 2022 to December 2022

BHAGVADGITA SESSIONS FOR STUDENTS

An amazingly unique program for the benefit of the students was initiated by the AOL Chapter of the college. The Coordinator, Prof. P.S.Pandya, took up a novel initiative of having online sessions of the Bhagvadgita to create awareness about the holy book followed by the whole world.

Under the specific criterias emphasised by National Education Policy, 2020, some are about promoting Holistic development of students, fostering ethics, human values as empathy, spirit of service & equality, build character -ethical, rational, compassionate and caring, and fostering unique capabilities in each individual.

The Bhagvadgita is not only a source of inspiration to right living universally and since ages , but is followed as a doctrine by innumerable successful people of the world. A guide to being a good human being and lead a virtuous life is the key message of the Gita.

Youth today, burdened with issues of depression, loneliness, lack of human values, de motivation, reduced self esteem and awareness, needs guidance and moral support.

The holy book of Bhagvadgita has an answer to varied problems of life and just by its reading, one can be motivated and encouraged to find solutions.

Hence the idea of making the Bhagvadgita available to the students on an online mode was put into action. Separate whatsapp groups were made for each year of undergraduation and post Graduation. The videos of the ISKCON –available on the net were shared with the students, one chapter per week. A quiz with online certification was specially made by the Coordinator and regularly sent after each chapter.

At the end of the 18 chapters, a grand function was organised to distribute certificates to the students who had attended all the 18 quiz.

The Principal, Dr. Heena Oza, Management committee members Shri Nitin Mehta(Secretary of Surat Education Society)and Shree Shanil Patel(Joint Secretary) graced the occasion and joined to distribute certificates.

The students shared their views on how the online sessions had brought a positive change in their lives
